PublishAmerica Presents Memoirs of a Hollywood Adventure by Mac Nelson

Frederick, MD April 28, 2009 -- PublishAmerica is proud to present Memoirs of a Hollywood Adventure by Mac Nelson.

Mac Nelson moved to Hollywood to become a television and movie star. Ten years later, he left Hollywood with something far greater. This lighthearted, yet spiritually profound account explores elements of the movie capital that most people probably don't even know exists. It's unlike any other story about Hollywood that you've ever read.

Mac Nelson has worked as a performer, theater director, and high school teacher. He presently resides in Long Island City, New York and teaches English as a second language at two of the city's colleges. Mac has also written Waiting for My Fingers: One Man's Reflection on Sin, Suffering, Healing, and Victory.

PublishAmerica is the home of 35,000 talented authors. PublishAmerica is a traditional publishing company whose primary goal is to encourage and promote the works of new, previously undiscovered writers. Like more mainstream publishers, PublishAmerica pays its authors advances and royalties, makes its books available in both the United States and Europe through all bookstores, and never charges any fees for its services. PublishAmerica offers a distinctly personal, supportive alternative to vanity presses and less accessible publishers.
